Lead generation/Lead capture

Attendees have the option to opt into receiving sponsor information during the registration process. A list of those that have opted in will be shared with sponsors immediately after the event.

We will have QR codes on the attendee name badges that can be captured with any kind of smartphone/tablet QR reader app. It is your responsibility to download and test one that works for you, or, we have a recommendation, BADGERSCAN. A free app that we have tested and used on multiple occasions. The data that will be available is Name, Title, Company, State of residence, County of Residence and email address.

PLEASE NOTE THAT IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO TEST A QR SCANNING SOLUTION THAT WORKS FOR YOU, USING THE QR code DATA THAT WE PROVIDE

Feel free to conduct raffles, giveaways or other Lead generation/Lead Capture activities at your booth.

CONNECT.TECH CODE OF CONDUCT

Adapted from the JSConf Code Of Conduct (<http://jsconf.com/codeofconduct.html>)

Also found online here <http://connect.tech/codeofconduct/>

All delegates, speakers, sponsors and volunteers at any Connect.Tech event are required to agree with the following code of conduct. Organizers will enforce this code throughout the event.

The Quick Version

Connect.Tech is dedicated to providing a harassment-free conference experience for everyone, regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, religion (or lack thereof), or technology choices. We do not tolerate harassment of conference participants in any form. Sexual language and imagery is not appropriate for any conference venue, including talks, workshops, parties, Twitter and other online media. Conference participants violating these rules may be sanctioned or expelled from the conference without a refund at the discretion of the conference organizers.

The Less Quick Version

Harassment includes offensive verbal comments related to gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, religion, technology choices, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately.

Sponsors are also subject to the anti-harassment policy. In particular, sponsors should not use sexualized images, activities, or other material. Booth staff (including volunteers) should not use sexualized clothing/uniforms/costumes, or otherwise create a sexualized environment.

If a participant engages in harassing behavior, the conference organizers may take any action they deem appropriate, including warning the offender or expulsion from the conference with no refund.

If you are being harassed, notice that someone else is being harassed, or have any other concerns, please contact a member of conference staff immediately. Conference staff can be identified by a clearly marked "STAFF" shirt.

Conference staff will be happy to help participants contact hotel/venue security or local law enforcement, provide escorts, or otherwise assist those experiencing harassment to feel safe for the duration of the conference. We value your attendance.

We expect participants to follow these rules at all conference venues and conference-related social events.
